3. STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH THE SOUTH CAROLINA FAMILY PRIVACY PROTECTION ACT OF 2002

Section 30-2-50 of the Code of Laws of the State of South Carolina provides that no person or private entity shall knowingly obtain or use any personal information obtained from a public body for commercial solicitation. The South Carolina Department of Labor, Licensing and Regulation gives notice to you, as a requestor of records from this agency, that obtaining or using these public records for commercial solicitation is prohibited.

Commercial solicitation means contact by telephone, mail or electronic mail for the purpose of selling or marketing a consumer product or service. State law requires agencies to take measures to ensure no personal information is distributed for unlawful purposes.

The following uses of the information are not considered to be commercial solicitation under the law:

- Offering membership in a credit union;
- Notification of continuing education opportunities;
- Selling or marketing banking, insurance, securities, or commodities services provided by an institution or entity defined in or required to comply with the Federal Gramm-Leach-Bliley Financial Modernization Act, 113 Stat. 1338; or
- Contacting persons for political purposes using information on file with state and local voter registration offices.

Any person who knowingly uses public records for commercial solicitation is guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, must be fined an amount not to exceed $500 or imprisoned for a term not to exceed one year, or both.
